Accomplishments

Scott has assisted numerous school districts in obtaining the prestigious Association of School Business Officials Certificate of Excellence in Financial Reporting by assisting districts in meeting certain financial reporting standards. He has assisted several of his governmental clients in obtaining bond financing for construction of new facilities.

Scott was recognized by the New Jersey State Society of CPA's as one of the top 50 CPA's over 50 years of age.

With more than 28 years of experience, Scott Clelland is the Partner-in-Charge of the Public Sector Services practice at Wiss. His experience with the public sector includes school districts, municipalities, authorities, colleges and universities, state agencies and not-for-profit organizations. He is a recognized expert in the public sector arena and is frequently consulted by clients, regulators, other professionals and State agencies.

Scott's experience includes the development of the accounting procedures manual currently used by all school districts in the state of New Jersey and he assisted the State Department of Education in developing the Chart of Accounts, the Sample Comprehensive Annual Financial Report and implementation of generally accepted accounting principles for school districts.

Scott is frequently called upon to assist State agencies, regulators and other organizations to provide presentations and training to government officials and to assist with the adoption of new standards and regulations.

He currently serves on the firm's Executive Committee and is the Partner-in-Charge of the Iselin office.
