

Kyle Pennacchia, CPA
Manager
kpennacchia@wiss.com
212-594-8155

Kyle Pennacchia is a Manager at Wiss and Company, LLP who provides business advisory and attestation services for clients within the New York Metropolitan area.

Kyle takes pride in exceptional personal attention and familiarity with all his clients. He not only understands their needs, but also provides expertise as to how current and future business decisions, as well as pending political and economic trends, will affect their overall goals.

His extensive experience with both domestic and international business operations in industries such as real estate, hospitality, manufacturing, distribution, professional services, publishing and pharmaceutical production has positioned him as a valuable strategic resource to help his clients confidently reach their true potential.

Kyle's current areas of focus and interest include real estate investment, financial markets, coding, and leadership.

Education

BS - Accounting from University of Rhode Island
MBA - Finance and Entrepreneurship from Zicklin School of Business at Baruch

Professional Affiliations

Chartered Global Management Accountant
New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants

Beyond Wiss

Kyle enjoys spending most of his free time with his family in Upstate New York and close friends. He loves being active outdoors and seeing what the world has to offer by indulging in good food and travel. Kyle believes in the benefits of self-education and makes it a priority to give back to others.