Accomplishments

As a successful industry leader, Craig serves as the technology leader for the Accounting and Auditing Department at Wiss and is a member of the Firm's Accounting and Auditing Committee.

Craig Erickson is the Partner-in-Charge of our Employee Benefit Plan Group where he unravels the complex world of defined contribution plans, defined benefit plans, health and welfare plans and ESOPs. During his 15 years of experience in public accounting, Craig has become an expert in translating compliance requirements necessary to fulfill the Department of Labor ("DOL") and Employee Retirement Income Security Act ("ERISA") regulations. His range of services encompass accounting, audit and consulting for a variety of middle market industries, including manufacturing, wholesale/distribution, professional services, private foundations, and sports and entertainment.

Throughout the years, Craig has shared his expertise in the ever-changing area of retirement plans and ERISA as a featured panelist for seminars and by writing relevant articles. Topics include meeting fiduciary responsibilities, DOL audits and 5500 audits.
